

Aging Concerns

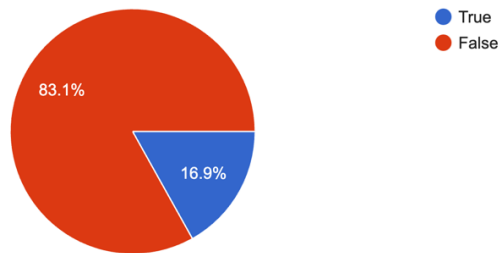

I have already been thinking about where and how I'll spend the last years of my life
302 responses

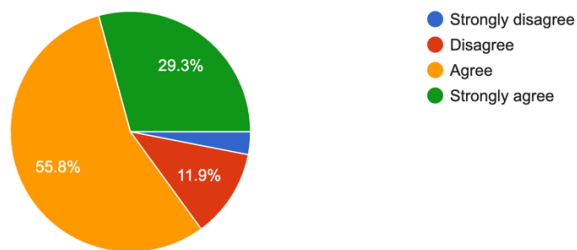

I feel quite secure someone will be there to take care of me
302 responses

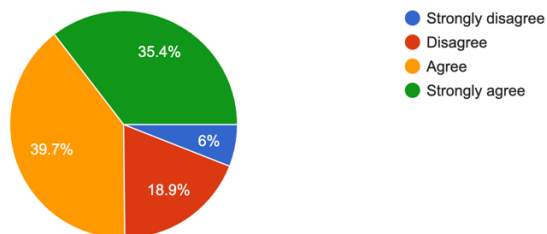

I know my children or biological family will care for me
302 responses

I have concerns about how I will be cared for
294 responses

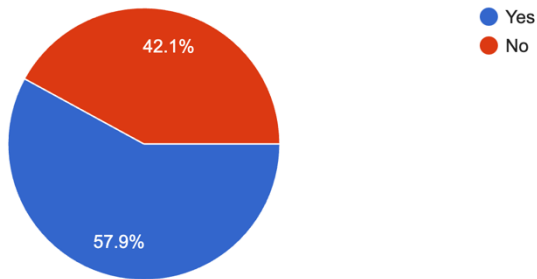

I am concerned about having enough financial resources for the rest of my life
302 responses

Preparedness

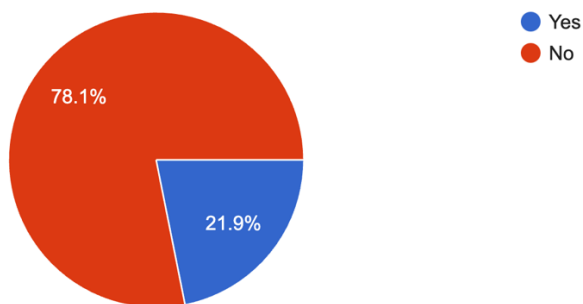

I have talked about this generally with friends or family

302 responses

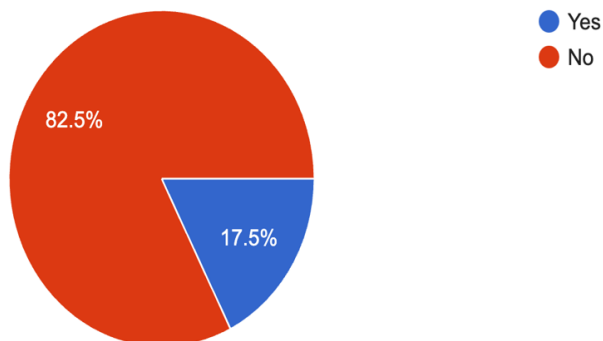

I already have specific, concrete plans about how I will live after age 75

302 responses

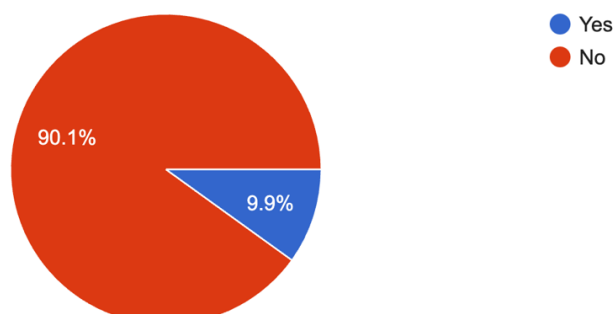

I have already put concrete steps in place

302 responses

I already know who and where, or I have already completed arrangements

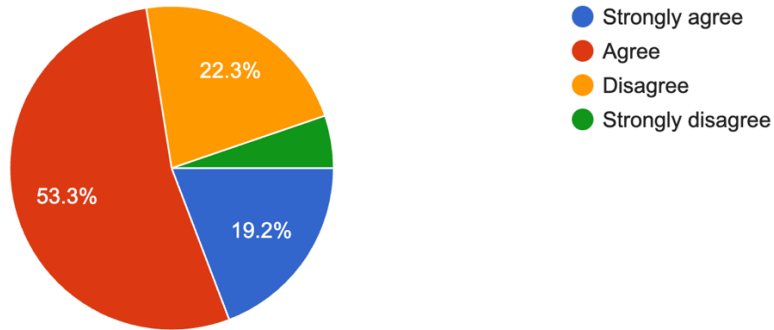

302 responses

LGBTQ-specific concerns

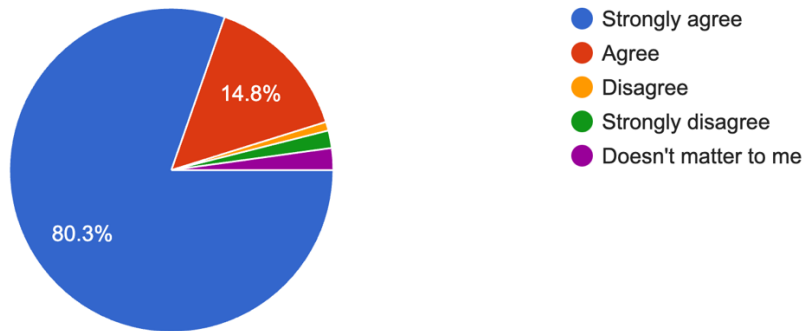

I am concerned about facing stigma or homophobia in my old age

229 responses

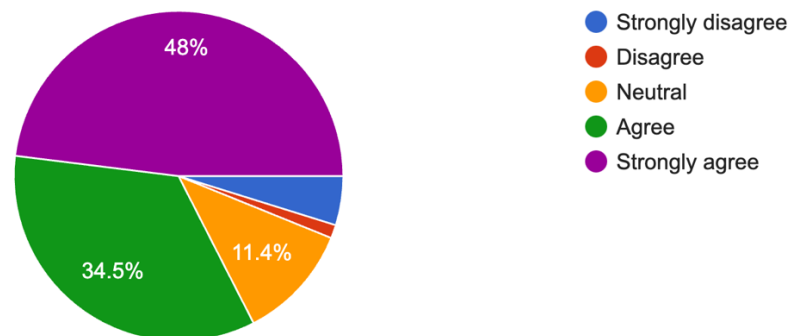

I would not want to go back in the closet in my later years

229 responses

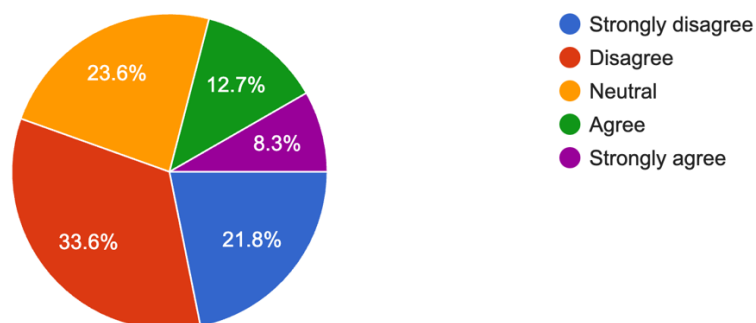

It is important to me to be in a gay affirming environment

229 responses

It is not important for me to be around other gay people

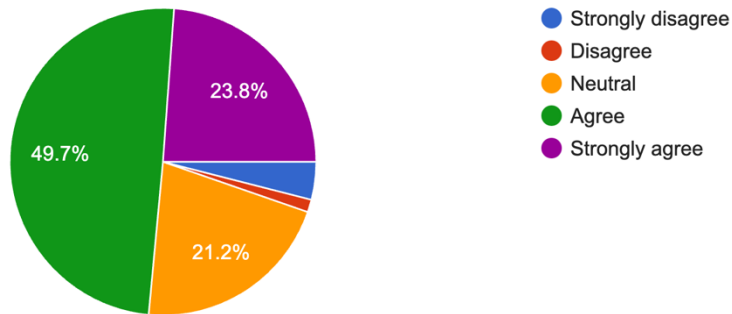

229 responses

Support for Stonewall Bridge model

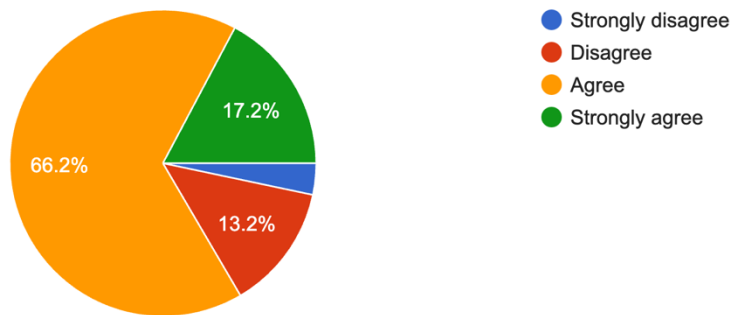

I would like to live in an intergenerational community of adults, not all seniors

302 responses

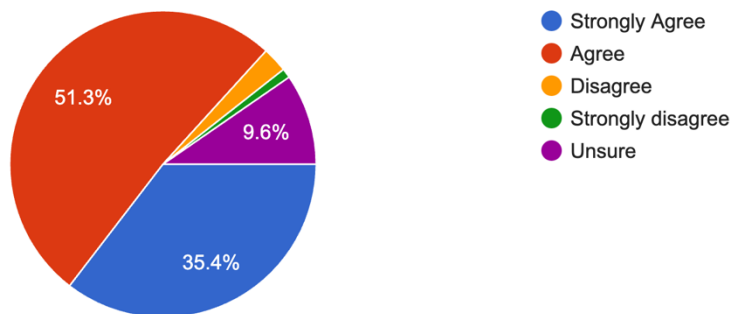

I would be open to having a younger person live with me to assist me if it meant I could stay in my home

302 responses

I would consider using safety monitor technology that would help me stay in my home safely

302 responses

I would consider using the value of my home to ensure care that allows me to stay at home safely

150 responses

